This research was motivated by the increasing demand to improve Qur'an memorization at Hamalatul Qur'an Islamic Boarding School, Jogoroto, Jombang, while maintaining the Islamic values that characterize the institution. The boarding school strives to integrate the values contained in the Holy Qur'an into the Muroqobah learning process. This study aims to: (1) describe the implementation of Muroqobah learning in the Qur'an memorization process at Hamalatul Qur'an Islamic Boarding School; (2) describe the supporting and inhibiting factors faced by teachers (ustadz) in improving students' Qur'an memorization through Muroqobah learning; and (3) describe the implementation of Muroqobah learning in enhancing the Qur'an memorization of students at Hamalatul Qur'an Islamic Boarding School, Jogoroto, Jombang.This research employed a qualitative approach with a descriptive research design. Data were collected through observation, interviews, and documentation involving the head of the Islamic boarding school, teachers (ustadz), and students as research informants. The data were analyzed through data reduction, data presentation, and conclusion drawing. The validity of the data was ensured through source triangulation and technique triangulation.The findings indicate that: (1) the implementation of Muroqobah learning at PPHQ significantly assists students in reading and memorizing the Qur'an; (2) the boarding school leader, the education division administrators, and the teachers have clear authority in implementing Muroqobah activities to improve the quality of students' Qur'an memorization; and (3) the Muroqobah program fosters discipline and consistency (istiqamah) among students in participating in Qur'an memorization activities.
